CHANGING FACES

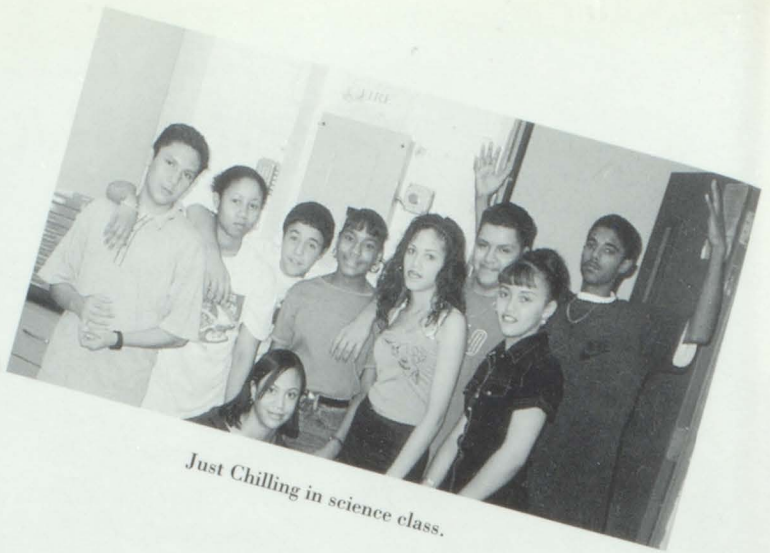

Time passes by
I think about the past
It seems like yesterday,
Mom said "You're growing up so fast."
Days go slowly, years go by quick
I remember the days I was well, and also the lonely days sick
When first I came here,
Things seemed new
The classrooms hard to find,
And lockers yellow and blue
So many new faces
In such a small school
Almost like family. Do you remember the ones closest to you?
From the first day I came,
Until the last day I leave
From the best of friends,
To the most naïve
Four years of preparation,
Now the beginning has come
People going to college,
The Airforce or Navy for some
B.T., how can I forget your floors and many doors
I left this school with a trade,
To guarantee not being poor
From assemblies to half-days,
To parent teacher conferences with my mom
From soccer games to baseball games
To basketball games and a beautiful prom
I'll never forget the time that I spent in the small halls of Bloomfield Tech
We've Changed our faces, now we're adults
BUT THESE MEMORIES I'LL NEVER FORGET

A poem by a senior
For seniors

THE SPARTAN 2000-2001

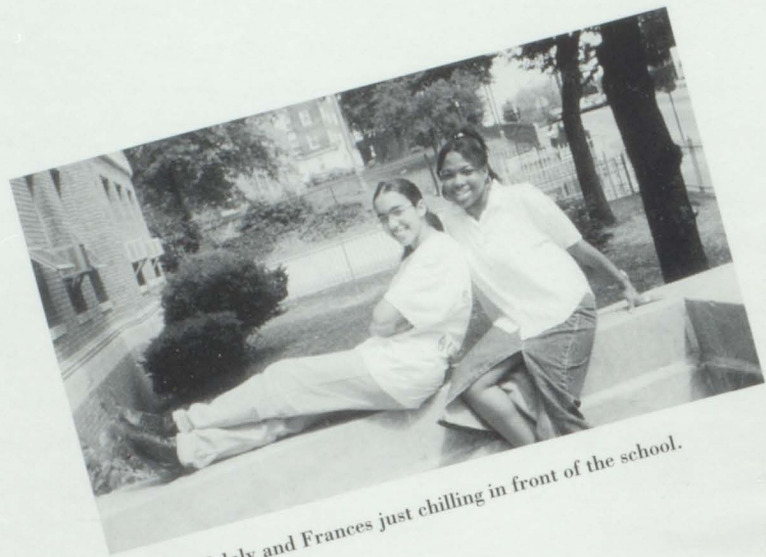

Cheeks says "Huh"!

Just Chilling in science class.

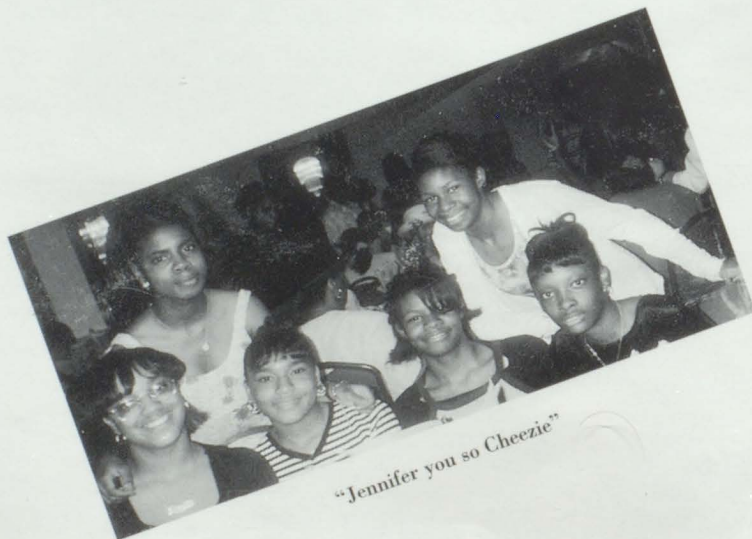

Four years ago, barely 15 years old, we walked through the doors of Bloomfield Tech for the first time. ...

Odaly and Frances just chilling in front of the school.

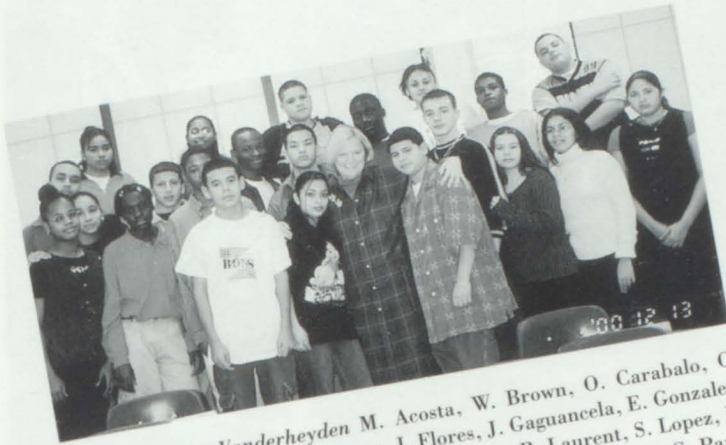

Lady Spartans Representing for 1998-99.

Friends are like angels

Our friends are like angels, who brighten our days.
In all kinds of wonderful,
Magical ways.

Their thoughtfulness comes as a gift from above,
as we feel we're surrounded by warm, caring love.
Like upside-down rainbows,
their smiles bring the sun.
And they fill ho-hum moments,
with laughter and fun.

Friends are like angels
without any wings,
blessing our lives
with the most precious things.

Dear Odaly,

I want to thank you for being a true friend. Thank you for being understanding with me and never losing your cool; For being loyal and trustworthy. Thank you for being a good listener and making me smile when I needed it. And finally Thank you for caring and being you. I want to apologize for anything I might have said or done over the past 3 years that might have hurt you in anyway (you know how I can get). I'm going to miss you. Keep your head up, Ma. Don't let no one bring you down. If you ever need anything at all just let me know. Take care of yourself. Love you.

Love Always,

To the love of my life ,

Words can't express how much I Love you and how proud I am of you. I've seen you grow from a baby to a beautiful smart young lady. Even though you don't listen (You think NO! means YES), I enjoyed every bit of it. You worked so hard to be where you're at, and I know it has been very hard for you. For that reason congratulate you. And hope to see that you would continue to work hard and live your life to the fullest. Don't listen to the criticism. Be who you are. Don't let nobody hold you back from doing what you want to do. I hope you have learned from my mistakes and don't fall right into them. Take care of yourself, baby. I'll always love you.

Love always and forever,

Mami

CHEERLEADERS

A Splash of Color!

Spartan Friendship

Friendship is a priceless gift
That cannot be bought or sold,
But its value is far greater
Than a mountain of gold.

For gold is cold and lifeless
It can neither see nor hear,
And in the time of trouble
It is powerless to cheer.

It has no ears to listen
No heart to understand,
It cannot bring you comfort
Or reach out a helping hand.

So when I ask God for the perfect gift
I'll be thankful if he sends,
Not diamonds, pearls, or riches
But the love of my Spartan Friends

Shazajah A. Davenport
